

SUPRATOURS works in tandem with the ONCF network, by extending the railroad lines or by reaching areas not served by the train, in a strategy promoting the “rail-route” product

With this positioning, SUPRATOURS is today a leading operator of national passenger travel with a million and a half passengers transported over 19 million kilometers in 2017.

Our strengths:

- A network covering the whole country;
- A coordination of road-rail schedules to all destinations;
- A large network of agencies equipped and adapted to the needs of the clientele, offering a welcoming infrastructure that meets the required needs;

A fleet of coaches renewed every five years;
Qualified and continuously trained staff.
